
RESOURCES FOR FORMER EGCC STUDENTS

Former Eastern Gateway Community College students may find the following U.S. Department of Education resources helpful for reporting concerns, filing complaints or seeking assistance with federal student aid.

U.S. Department of Education OIG

Report fraud, waste, abuse or mismanagement involving federal student aid or U.S. Department of Education-funded programs, including student aid fraud, theft, Pell Grant abuse and loan fraud.

oig.ed.gov

EGCC Closure Information

Find answers to common questions following the college's closure, including information about transcripts and diplomas, student records, transfer options, accreditation, public records and other resources for former EGCC students.

egcc.edu

ED Office for Civil Rights (OCR)

File complaints about discrimination or retaliation related to race, color, national origin, sex, disability or age.

ed.gov/about/ed-offices/ocr

Borrower Defense Hotline

For students seeking federal student loan discharge due to institutional misconduct or misrepresentation, including issues involving a closed school.

855-279-6207