Date: October 21, 2015

The Federal Audit Clearinghouse (FAC) has further extended the single audit submission deadline to 12/31/15. As indicated to you in our communication on August 3, 2015, the FAC website has been down since July, due to a security incident. The submission deadline had previously been extended to 10/31/15; however, due to the continued closure, the FAC is now further extending the deadline.

As a reminder, when determining Low Risk Auditee Status, the question 'If single audits were conducted in the prior two years, did the auditee make a complete filing submission within the nine month due date' can be answered by accessing the temporary files as communicated on September 16, 2015.

Please contact the Center for Audit Excellence if you have any questions.
