Building Skinnier, Smarter Government

skinnyOhio.org & Shared Services Idea Center

Auditor of State Dave Yost launched skinnyOhio.org to provide local governments the tools necessary to deliver efficient, cost-effective services to their constituents and communities. The skinnyOhio.org website is a one-stop shop to find examples, templates and outside-the-box ideas being used in local communities just like yours.

Find Ideas & Solutions

Use skinnyOhio.org to find:

- ✓ Savings recommendations from performance audits
- ✓ Examples of shared services among communities
- ✓ Shared services agreements to use as templates to get your partnership started
- ✓ Information about the Local Government Innovation Fund to help governments implement cost-saving strategies

“Everybody talks about lean government, but it’s harder to do than to say. This website provides the ‘how’ for local governments.”
- Dave Yost, Ohio Auditor of State

Shared Services Idea Center

The skinnyOhio.org website offers an interactive platform to gather ideas and share experiences:

- ✓ Discover new ideas for partnering with your neighbors to save costs and increase efficiencies
- ✓ Share your stories of cost savings with peers from across the state

It’s Easy! Here’s How:

Access and upload information on the website:

- ✓ Visit skinnyOhio.org
- ✓ Click “Shared Services Idea Center,” at the bottom right of the page
- ✓ Search for examples or submit your own partnership
